
Driving AI Innovation and Data Solutions Through Joint Expertise

This partnership combines Databricks' advanced data and AI platform with Zensar's expertise in digital engineering and cloud solutions, enabling enterprises to accelerate innovation, optimize data-driven decision-making, and unlock scalable AI capabilities to gain a competitive advantage.

Zensar's end-to-end services

Unified enterprise platform:

ZenseAI.Data powered by gen AI and agentic AI for intelligent transformation.

Advanced analytics and AI:

Predictive modeling, ML, AI-driven insights, MLOps, and model lifecycle management.

Cloud and infrastructure

enablement: Full cloud integration, modernization, and infrastructure automation for operational efficiency.

Operational and industry

solutions: Continuous support, optimization, and tailored digital engineering strategies for industry-specific needs.

Data lifecycle and governance:

End-to-end data services — collection, ingestion, processing, migration, testing, annotation — with strong governance and security.

Together, we help businesses unlock insights, scale AI, and transform operations for sustainable growth.
