Why Salesforce Revenue Cloud?

With Salesforce Revenue Cloud, you can move to a subscription-based model, and simplify your quote-to-cash journey in a seamless process across touchpoints for your customers, with ease. Revenue Cloud connects your sales, partner, operations, and finance teams, to create a single source of truth right from your quoting to order to your invoicing process.

This single source acts as the agile layer that helps you create the kind of experience that customers today expect. It allows you to offer them:

- A transition to a subscription-based model
- Flexible purchasing options
- Online buy journeys with supplementary support via other channels

Revenue Cloud brings together CPQ and Billing, Partner Relationship Management and B2B Commerce capabilities to help businesses take control of their revenue growth across every channel. Whether it means catering to an overnight increase in demand or creating new opportunities due to lack of it – Revenue Cloud gives you the support to create a resilient system that can cater to market irregularities.

Why choose Zensar to help your organization leverage Revenue Cloud?

EXPERIENCE with over 10+ years of successful Salesforce delivery

PROVEN AND ECONOMICAL APPROACH by suggesting & implementing the optimal subscription and usage-based billing model to achieve cost benefits without losing out on functionality

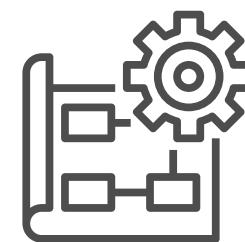

END-TO-END PARTNERSHIP with capabilities across every phase of your transition – from architecture, integration to implementation and sustenance

EXPERTISE with our team of certified CPQ and Billing specialists and business experts

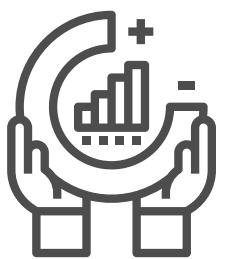

We help bring in optimizations every step of the way with our add-on value enablers

Squeeze the most out of the implementation with our Revenue Cloud Framework

Our proprietary framework is a repository of pre-built processes and actionable insights that we have formulated over the years, delivering successful projects for clients. We use it to deliver an average of 30% reduction in discovery and implementation timelines for our clients.

Reap business value during sales operations with our Deal Risk Review tool

Once Revenue Cloud is implemented and live for you, our Deal Risk Review tool steps in to validate your deals before you create them in your ERP system. This ensures 100% accuracy and improves your customer experience and positively contributes to company reputation.

Improve productivity & performance with our Accelerators

Based on our extensive experience with our customers on Salesforce, we've developed accelerators that can help bridge the gap between tool capabilities and your requirements adding value to the process of quote-to-cash. Some accelerators we have built include, FX Rate Convertor and Flexi Renewal, which can accelerate quote creation and contract renewals by 30% and 20% respectively.
